Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is responsive to the following communication: Amendment filed on 2/16/07. This action is made final.
2. Applicant amended claims 1, 5, 6, and 9.
3. Applicant has canceled claims 3 and 8.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 1, 2, 4-7, and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Mizutome et al (hereinafter Mizutome), US 2002/0078447.

- In regards to claims 1 and 6, Mizutome teaches An electronic apparatus comprising: a display controlling means for controlling the display of an image on a screen (Figure 19); a housing means for housing a plurality of types of constitutive elements for generating a program for displaying an image on said screen, and for housing selected display information for a constitutive element from said plurality of types of constitutive elements on said screen (Figure 19); a selection means for selecting a first constitutive element for displaying screen layout options on said screen and a second constitutive element for displaying a source of information (Figure 12, and page 7 paragraph [0109]-[0111]) from said plurality of types of constitutive elements, according to said selected display information displayed on said screen; and a generation means for generating information based on a result of the selecting by said selection means and for generating said program based on said information (page 4 paragraphs [0075] and [0083]).

- In regards to claims 2 and 7, Mizutome teaches wherein said selection means selects and displays on said display section a plurality of selected display information from said plurality of selected display information housed in said housing means, if there is a plurality of selected display information housed in said housing means (Figure 19).
- In regards to claim 4, Mizutome teaches wherein said housing means houses a program generated by said generation means (page 4 paragraphs [0075] and [0083]).
- In regards to claims 5 and 9, Mizutome teaches an electronic apparatus comprising: a display controlling means for controlling the display of an image on a screen (Figure 19); a housing means for housing a plurality of generation information for generating a program for displaying an image on said screen, and for housing selected display information for selecting a piece of generation information from said plurality of generation information on said screen (Figure 19); a selection means for selecting a first piece of generation information for displaying screen layout options (Figure 19) on said screen and a second piece of generation information for displaying a source of information (Figure 12, and page 7 paragraph [0109]-[0111]) according to said selected display information displayed on said screen; and a generation means for generating said program based on a result of said selecting selection (page 4 paragraphs [0075] and [0083]).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-9 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
